MEDIA RELEASE

5th June 2002

Work for the Dole Projects for Armidale & Glen Innes

Independent Federal Member for New England, Tony Windsor has welcomed the announcement by Minister for Employment Services, Mal Brough of another 13 Work for the Dole places in two projects in the New England Electorate.

The two Work for the Dole Projects that have been announced are for

- 1 an update to the Neighbourhood Centre in Armidale co-ordinated by Tablelands Community Employment & Training Inc with 2 places and
- 2 for the Glennie Greats Project in Glen Innes co-ordinated by Joblink Plus Ltd with 11 places.

The Armidale Neighbourhood Centre update project will entail plastering and painting and the painting of murals on the walls.

The Glennie Greats project will host work experience in a regional sheltered workshop in recycling, horticulture and flower production, collecting sorting and grading of recyclables, restoring and repairing recyclables, serving customers and mowing lawns.

“I thank the Minister for his announcement and look forward to successful outcomes for those involved in both participating in the projects and for the co-ordinators and beneficiaries of the projects,” Mr Windsor said.
