MEDIA RELEASE

23 April 2003

Announcement of Centenary Medal Recipients in New England

Member for New England, Tony Windsor, today announced the awardees of the Centenary Medal in the General List living in the New England Electorate.

“The Centenary Medal honours Australians for service to the community and I am privileged to have the opportunity to present the medals over the next few weeks”, Mr Windsor said.

“I will be presenting a total of 91 Centenary Medals and ceremonies will be held in a number of venues throughout the Electorate.

“Recipients have been awarded the Medal for the considerable work they have done in and for the community, across a wide variety of activities.

“They represent the strong ethic of community service apparent in all Australian communities, but which often goes unrewarded.

“I look forward to meeting and talking with them and their friends and families at the ceremonies.”

Dates, times and places for the ceremonies will be publicised locally so that members of the public might attend and help honour the medal recipients.

Recipients themselves will receive a formal invitation from Mr Windsor.

Details of the awardees are provided on the following pages.
