MEDIA RELEASE

19 September 2003

Tribute to the late, great Slim Dusty

Federal Member for New England, Tony Windsor, has today paid tribute to the late Slim Dusty, AO.

Mr Windsor said our country has lost one of its greatest national icons, an outstanding Australian, who has given so much throughout his lifetime to country music.

“Slim will be sadly missed by all Australians, particularly those in country areas, who were the focus of so much of Slim’s music during his prolific recording and performing career.”

“Slim’s contribution to Country Music, and the popularity and growth of the annual Tamworth Country Music Festival, has been truly remarkable. This great Australian and his wonderful, timeless music will be forever fondly remembered and treasured.”

“My wife Lyn and our family extend our deepest sympathies to the members of Slim’s family and his many friends at this time of great sadness,” Mr Windsor concluded.
