Jakarta bombing

Independent Member for New England, Tony Windsor has expressed his deep sympathy for the victims of the Jakarta bombing and their families.

“The bombing in Jakarta is a terrible event and I send my deepest sympathy to the victims and their families for their losses and the impact it will have on the lives of many innocent people.

I am pleased to see however that both the Prime Minister and the Opposition Leader have put the issue above party politics and campaigning for the upcoming election.

I trust that this will continue throughout the campaign as I’m sure all Australians would want all their parliamentary representatives to do at this time,” Mr Windsor said.
