Windsor to hold Public Meeting in Liston

Independent Member for New England, Tony Windsor will be holding a Public Meeting in Liston on Tuesday November 14 at 7.30pm (NSW time or 6.30pm Qld time) at the Liston Hall.

The Liston meeting is part of Mr Windsor's practice of holding Public Meetings around the electorate of New England to enable people to let him know their views.

"Each year, as well as visiting and meeting individuals and groups around the electorate, I hold public meetings and invite people to come and let me know their views on issues that they have concerns about.

I give a short report card on what I've been doing as their elected representative and then more importantly, people have the opportunity to tell me their views and ideas which assists me in representing the people of the New England Electorate in the Federal Parliament.

I look forward each year to having the opportunity to meet with people from across the electorate at these meetings and encourage people to come along and have their say.

I would particularly encourage farmers affected by the Exceptional Circumstance process to attend as well as those people wanting to discuss other issues that may be impacting on them," Mr Windsor said.
