Windsor welcomes new Child Support service centre

The new Child Support Agency Regional Service Centre located in Tamworth has been welcomed by the Independent Member for New England, Tony Windsor.

The new service is co-located with the Tamworth office of Centrelink at 17 White Street.

“I welcome the new Child Support Agency regional service centre to Tamworth and the broader New England North West.

More Child Support Agency services in the region will assist greatly in this very sensitive field.

There are many people in our communities who are affected by family breakdown and child support agency workers have very big caseloads to attend to with compassion and care.

An extra five workers based locally in Tamworth will bring a human face to dealing with the problems faced by those in need rather than having to deal over the phone and experience the frustrations associated with this form of communication,” Mr Windsor said.
